

BARTER BANK

National Museum, New Delhi

WELCOME NOTE

Dear Teacher,

Welcome to the National Museum (NM).

NM which houses more than 2, 00000 objects, believes in encouraging different visitor groups utilize and interpret its collection in diverse ways and context. Similarly, NM's Barter bank workshop for children would introduce the participants to the basics of the barter system, the temporal evolution of currency mediums and the various connotations attached to it

This resource is divided in two segments including Pre and during the visit segments. But we do encourage teachers to include activities that could be made part of post visit segment. And activities may be developed based around museum visit.

We hope you and your students have an enjoyable and interactive session in the classroom with our pre visit material.
