Unique Harappan Objects from Banavali and Dholavira

Dr. R S Bisht
Eminent Archaeologist

Dr Ravindra Singh Bisht has over 35 years' experience in Archaeological Research, Conservation & environmental development of national monuments. He is the Alumni of School of Archaeology, Archaeological Survey of India and has served ASI as a Senior Technical Assistant to Joint Director General. In has vast working career in ASI from 1968 to 2004 he was involved with major excavation projects in Dholavira, Banawali, Semthan, Sanghol and Nalanda.

Apart from archaeological excavations his experience in conservation and museum exhibition are also commendable. He has also been teaching in various universities and has published widely.

In 2013, Dr. Bisht was conferred the honour of Padma Shri by the Hon’ble president of India for his lifetime achievements and contributions to the field of archeology.

For queries please email us at nationalmuseumoutreach@gmail.com or call us at 23019272 (Ext 273)